

National Accounts Services + Solutions

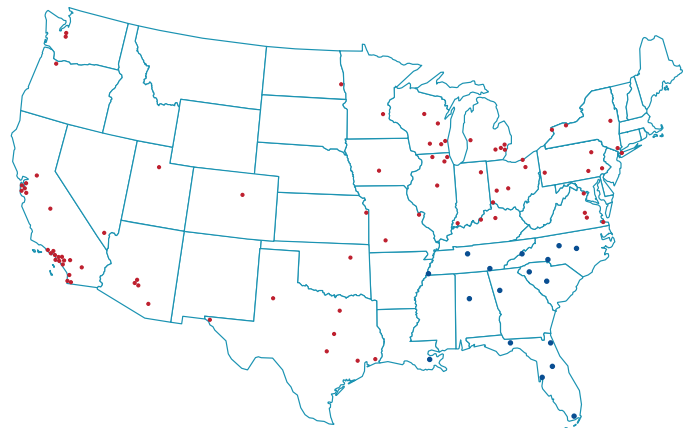

Mac Papers and Packaging specializes in comprehensive packaging programs and services for national and multi-location accounts.

Our packaging professionals specialize in developing customized packaging programs for companies with complex packaging challenges that require sophisticated solutions and services. We're also experts at delivering single-source packaging solutions for multi-location companies. Mac Papers and Packaging has extensive national accounts resources to manage pricing, sourcing and reporting to best support an operation's overall packaging requirements. We are a founding member of and represented nationwide by Network® Services Company, extending our reach well beyond our presence throughout the Southeast.

Rely on our robust National Accounts resources.

- Dedicated team – coordinates national and local tasks, delivers quantified solutions, accountable for success criteria defined by the customer
- Specialists and technicians – skilled in product design and testing, experienced in evaluating productivity, yield and integrity
- Sourcing and merchandising – nationally-aligned manufacturers that enable us to leverage spend and source products for standardized offerings
- E-business tools – consistent reporting, performance measurement, systems integration and procurement
- Distribution centers – located throughout the S.E. for order delivery and fulfillment + programs that align with local relationships and requirements
- 3PL and Network® Services partnerships that offer a national reach
